

Kyle Moriarty

The things people like and admire about me are...

I have a nice smile. I am a nice person.

I really love to walk and hike with friends.

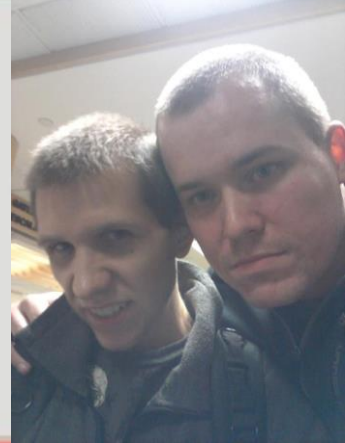

I work hard as a self-advocate.

I love my family and friends.

I like to have fun.

I very much care about my community.

I make good brownies.

What makes me happy

The most important things in my life are my family and friends. I love my mom dad and brother Kevin very much and I could not get by without them. My friends also bring joy to my life. Having good people around me who also type to communicate gives me a confident feeling. My favorite things to do are walking, swimming and going out with friends.

How I like to be supported...

- To best support me please first understand that I am an intelligent person and that I need to be treated with dignity.
- Talk to me and give me plenty of notice on the schedule.
- Stay calm to help me stay calm.
- Learn to support my typing.
